

Dear ELFA members and friends,

In 2012 we will be meeting in Madrid from the 8th to the 10th March.

The main topic will be: Challenges of Professional Life for Legal Education, and to discuss this topic we will have the participation of several important personalities, representatives from the judicial, advocate and academic fields. We ask you to please save the dates. We would be very pleased to have you attend.

The Madrid conference is now calling for papers on this main topic and also on:

- Innovating Methods in Legal Teaching
- Environmental Law
- Consumer Protection Law

You will find the following documents attached:

- Conference Programme (draft)
- Registration form
- Call for papers

All of these documents will be available on the web site: www.elfa-afde.eu.

The final Programme, the Annual Report, the Financial Report and further information will be also available shortly.

If you are not the person in charge of this subject, we kindly ask you to please indicate this to us or to forward this message to the right person.

Kind regards,

Manuel Ángel Bermejo
